ASSET DIVISION & FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE

In divorce proceedings, both parties are required to disclose their financial assets and liabilities. Accurate financial disclosure is crucial to ensure that both parties have a clear understanding of the assets to be divided.

KEY SERVICES:

FULL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE SUPPORT

We assist in gathering and analysing all financial documents, including bank statements, investments, retirement funds, and business interests, to ensure full transparency. Our forensic accountants review all submissions for accuracy, identifying any discrepancies or omissions.

ASSET DIVISION STRATEGY

Our team evaluates all assets, including properties, investments, and business shares, ensuring they are fairly valued and appropriately divided. We account for the financial needs of both parties, helping to ensure an equitable split.

VALUATIONS FOR DIVORCE

The valuation of assets - particularly business interests, properties, and pensions - is a critical part of the divorce process. Our team specialises in providing accurate valuations that reflect the true worth of assets, ensuring that both parties receive a fair share.

KEY SERVICES:

BUSINESS VALUATION

In cases where one or both spouses have an interest in a business, we provide expert business valuations to determine the asset value for the purposes of the divorce. Whether the business is sold, one spouse buys the other out, or it's included in the division of the marital estate, our valuations provide the necessary financial clarity.

PROPERTY & ASSET VALUATION

For physical assets such as homes, properties, vehicles, and personal valuables, we project-manage the valuation process by collaborating with trusted industry experts. This ensures accurate, market-based valuations that reflect current conditions, facilitating fair asset division and reducing potential disputes.

PENSIONS & RETIREMENT FUND VALUATION

In the UK, pensions are considered assets and must be accurately valued during a divorce. This may involve pension sharing orders or an offsetting arrangement.

KEY SERVICES:

PENSION VALUATIONS

We provide pension valuations to determine the financial worth of pensions, including state pensions, workplace pensions, and private pensions. This ensures that the value of pensions is accounted for in the settlement, whether through a pension sharing order or offsetting arrangements.

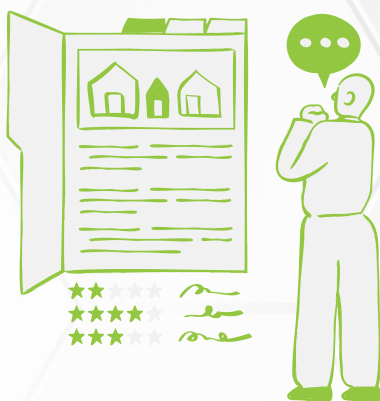

PENSION SHARING ORDERS

For cases involving pension splitting, we offer advice and support on the implications of pension sharing orders and how these should be structured in the final settlement.

FORENSIC ACCOUNTING & HIDDEN ASSET DISCOVERY

In many divorce cases, one party may attempt to hide assets or fail to disclose all available resources. Our forensic accounting team specialises in uncovering hidden assets and ensuring both parties are aware of the full extent of their financial estate.

KEY SERVICES:

ASSET SEARCH & FORENSIC ANALYSIS

Using publicly available databases, credit bureaus, and financial records, we conduct thorough asset searches to identify any hidden assets. This may include checking for unreported bank accounts, investments, or properties.

LIFESTYLE AUDIT

When one party is suspected of hiding assets or inflating expenses, we conduct a lifestyle audit to establish a baseline for maintenance claims and identify discrepancies in the financial disclosures. By analysing income and spending habits, we uncover the true financial position.

SPOUSAL SUPPORT & MAINTENANCE CLAIMS

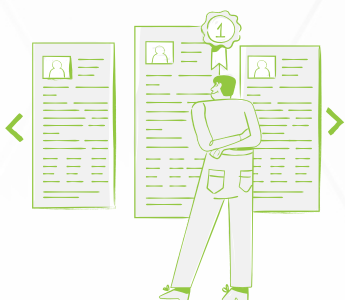

Spousal and child maintenance arrangements often require a detailed and equitable approach. We assist in calculating fair support settlements by analysing the financial needs of all parties, considering future expenses, and ensuring compliance with legal and economic standards.

KEY SERVICES:

LUMP SUM AND MAINTENANCE CALCULATIONS

We calculate lump sum and periodic maintenance settlements for individuals, factoring in inflation, after-tax investment returns, and mortality. Our assessments cater to different expense frequencies, ensuring a customised approach to long-term financial needs.

FINANCIAL AND TAX IMPACT ASSESSMENT

Our evaluations focus on future financial needs by analysing assets, liabilities, expected income, and lifestyle requirements. We also consider tax implications to ensure sustainable maintenance arrangements that accurately reflect each party's financial situation.

TAX IMPLICATIONS OF DIVORCE

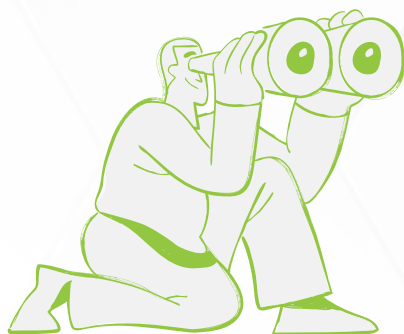

Divorce settlements can have significant tax consequences, especially when it comes to asset transfers, business interests, and spousal maintenance. Our accountants help navigate these implications to ensure that the settlement is structured in the most tax-efficient way.

KEY SERVICES:

TAX IMPACT ANALYSIS

We provide advice on the potential tax liabilities associated with asset transfers, pension shares, and maintenance payments. Our goal is to minimise tax burdens for both parties and ensure the divorce settlement is structured in the most tax-efficient way.

CAPITAL GAINS TAX (CGT) & INHERITANCE TAX (IHT)

We help assess potential CGT liabilities when assets are sold or transferred and advise on inheritance tax implications related to the division of estate.

FUTURE EARNINGS & BUSINESS INTERESTS

In high-net-worth divorces, future earnings and the value of business interests must be carefully considered in the settlement. We assess the potential future value of businesses and other income streams to ensure that both parties receive a fair division.

KEY SERVICES:

FUTURE EARNINGS ASSESSMENT

We calculate potential future earnings from business interests, investments, and other income sources, ensuring these are factored into the divorce settlement.

BUSINESS IMPACT ASSESSMENT

For divorces involving business ownership, we assess the impact of the divorce on business operations and ownership structures. Our expertise helps clients navigate the complexities of dividing business assets.

WHY CHOOSE US?

Our team of experts provides comprehensive financial support for divorce proceedings. From asset discovery to business valuations, spousal support calculations, and tax analysis, we ensure that every aspect of the divorce is handled with care and precision. We aim to provide clarity and peace of mind throughout the process, helping you secure a fair and equitable settlement.
